

Community Education Service

FENTANYL

Sgt. Andrew Critchley
Calgary Police Service, Crime Prevention Team

Wednesday October 11, 2017

10:00 am - 11:30 am

Sign in: 9:45 am

Alberta Children's Hospital
Kinsmen Learning Centre (4th floor)
2888 Shaganappi Trail NW

Register: <http://community.hmhc.ca/>

Sergeant Andrew Critchley is recognized as an experienced investigator, interrogator and mentor. He is the proud recipient of the Queens Diamond Jubilee medal, awarded to him in 2012, for dedication and commitment to policing.

This presentation is centred around the issue of fentanyl awareness; however, shall touch on the historical issues of opiate usage and offers preventative advice, while highlighting recent changes to legislation.