

Community Education Service FREE ONLINE SESSION

Speaking OUT:

A Special Report on LGBTQ2S+ Young People in the Child Welfare and Youth Justice Systems

Presented by: Arlene Eaton-Erickson, MSW, RSW
Manager of Intake, Engagement and Education, and Systemic Advocacy,
Office of the Child and Youth Advocate

Register: <http://community.hmhc.ca/sessions/?p=online>

Session available until: May 13, 2019

Learning Objectives:

1. To learn about the Speaking OUT Special Report process, themes, recommendations and the next steps in this systemic advocacy effort.
2. To build on participant's knowledge of supporting LGBTQ2S+ young people and to encourage action to improve their experiences and realities.
3. To hear from young people about what works, what doesn't and how things should change.

This session is presented by the Community Education Service of the Child & Adolescent Addiction, Mental Health & Psychiatry Program (CAAMHPP) of Alberta Health Services in partnership with the
The Office of the Child and Youth Advocate.
