

Community Education Service

Invisible: Why Do So Few Girls and Women Get an Autism Diagnosis?

Presented by: Dr. Katelyn Lowe, Registered Psychologist, Chief Strategy Officer, Sinneave Family Foundation, Adjunct Professor, Department of Paediatrics, University of Calgary & Rebecca Witwicky, B.A. Social & Cultural Anthropology, B.Sc. Registered Nursing, Writer, Speaker, Mentor, ASD Self-Advocate

Thursday, March 14, 2019

6:30 pm - 8:30 pm

Sign in: 6:15pm

The Ability Hub

Child Development Centre

300, 3820 - 24th Avenue NW

Session is FREE of charge/
Free parking in Lot 53. Please print parking pass when you register on the ces website.

Register: <http://community.hmhc.ca/>

For more information: email ces@ahs.ca or call (403) 955-4747

This presentation will discuss some of the reasons why more boys than girls receive an autism diagnosis, common co-occurring diagnoses and misdiagnoses that teens and adult women receive, strengths and struggles for autistic women across the lifespan, and finally screening and diagnostic tools specifically designed for females. If you or your daughter have been diagnosed with autism or are wondering about an autism diagnosis this session will provide helpful information and resources.