

Community Education Service

ADHD is Awesome!

Caroline Buzanko, PhD, Registered Psychologist,
Clinical Director, Koru Family Psychology

Thursday, April 25, 2019

Session: 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm

Sign in: 6:15 pm

Dalhousie School

4440 Dallyn Street NW

Register: <http://community.hmhc.ca/>

For more information: email ces@ahs.ca or call (403) 955-4747

ADHD is often thought of in terms of its symptoms and associated problems. Unfortunately, a deficit-based approach, focusing on what is wrong, can be very impairing for children and their families. However, there are so many positive qualities of ADHD that need to be celebrated! In this session, you will learn about what ADHD is, why it is awesome, and how to capitalize on its assets to promote long-term success.