

Improving emotional health and well being

It's YOUR Money!

Nicole Frandsen is an Outreach Officer for the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA). She has been with the agency for over 9 years and started her career in the Calgary Call Centre in Individual Income Tax Enquiries as a phone agent. Nicole progressed her career filling roles as a trainer, resource officer, and being a member of various local and regional committees. She now travels southern Alberta teaching people about the benefits, credits and tax deductions that are available to them from the CRA.

Learn what benefits you may be eligible for and how to claim the ones you are missing!

- ✓ Have you filed your 2019 tax return?
- ✓ Did you receive your Climate Action Incentive payment?
- ✓ Are you eligible for the GST credit?

It's not too late!

These topics, and your questions, will be answered:

- What is "My Account"?
- How does the Canada Child Benefit work when you are in a shared custody arrangement?
- When and how do you tell CRA you are common-law partners?
- Updates on the latest Canada Revenue Agency scams.

Ways to join:

Audioline: dial in & listen

Webinar: watch

This presentation will not be recorded for future viewing

Monday October 19th

1PM

Click to Register