

Community Education Service

Improving emotional health and well being

Neurodiversity Supports in a Post-Secondary Environment

Kirstin Kot, RSW, Master in Community Development and International Social Work
Neurodiversity Student Support Advisor, Student Wellness Services, University of Calgary

In this presentation, participants will learn about resources available to neurodivergent students at the University of Calgary, strategies and skills for post-secondary readiness, and provide considerations and tips for incoming students.

FREE Webinar

Thursday, December 9, 2021
6:30 - 8:30 PM

Register

<https://community.hmhc.ca>